

My wife and I are 100% against allowing cell phone use during flight. Nothing can be that important that it can't wait till the plane lands. Please do not let this issue be approved. There has not been any thing good to this point about using cell phones in public places.